HAROLD PITT RETURNS FROM IMPORTANT VISIT

As Representative of the Mapila Merchants' Association. He Placed Tariff Matter Before Senators.

Harlod M. Pitt, a former Salt Lake poy, and a member of the Utah battery during the Spanish-American war, is in Salt Lake again after a visit of several months in Washington. Mr. Pitt has been in Washington as the special representative of the Merchants' association of Manila, and has been working in the interest of absolute free trade between the has been working in the interest of absolute free trade between the United States and the Philippines. Mr. Pitt interviewed all the senators at Washington, as well as the heads of the various departments of govern-the various departments ment.

Air. Pitt states that free trade, from the Philippine standpoint is much to be desired. He also states that this country would be a great benefactor as a result of the establishment of free trade between the two countries. He points out that the trade of this country with tropical countries such country with tropical countries such as South America, Mexico, Japan, India, Java and the Straits Settlements amounts to more than $500, 000,000 per year, and that the balance of trade against this country is fully $250,000,000. The cause of this, Mr. Pitt states, is that while this country is giving this enormous amount of business to the countries mention-ed, those countries are buying from European points as they can get their cd, those countries are buying from European points as they can get their goods cheaper in Europe than in the United States, owing to the difference in the wage scales.

The tariff bill now under consideration in the senate, admits all Philippine products to the country free, with the exception of tobacco, sugar and rice, although 150,000,000 cigars, in addition to leaf tobacco, and fillers, and 300,000 tons of sugar will be admitted free under the new schedule. The Merchants' association of Manila is working for the admission of these products entirely free, and believes they will win in time.

Mr. Pitt says he has visited all the big cities in the country since arriving here from Manila some months ago, and that he has not found one city that is growing as rapidly as Salt Lake. He will leave Salt Lake soon for Scettle, where he will take the steamer Minnesota June 12, for Manila.
